(254-939-7582)

AWARE, formerly Family Outreach of Bell County, is a nationally recognized Child Abuse Prevention Center. AWARE believes that education is the key to prevention of child abuse/neglect and family violence. As the volunteer arm of Child Protective Services, AWARE fights to prevent such child abuse and family violence through education, case management, and the referral of high-risk populations. Volunteers are always welcome and include such roles as Class Facilitator and Education Coordinator.
